The authors regret that during the revision of this manuscript, the figures were updated to match the latest status of the database, but the list of contributors was not updated accordingly. In particular, the authors would like to acknowledge Markus Schmid, Jan U. Lohmann, and Detlef Weigel (MPI for Developmental Biology, Tübingen, Germany) for kindly providing a large dataset from baseline development experiments. The data are downloadable from The Arabidopsis Information Resource as part of the AtGenExpress series and can be visualized using GENEVESTIGATOR.
